

LOVE. DON'T JUDGE.

Love does not delight in evil but rejoices in truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

1 Corinthians 13:6-7

*Finding the grace to love unconditionally is powerful.

on how to take that step.](#)*

The easiest way to bring an offence is to speak before you seek wisdom from God. There's a time to speak up and a time to be quiet. Wisdom gives you the insight of the best time for you. The Lord gives wisdom to all those who ask Him in faith.

Seek wisdom and discernment before speaking.

"Wisdom is found on the lips of the discerning."

Proverbs 10:10

We have no idea of the reasons why people speak or act in a manner they do. God is more concerned with their hearts and that's where He does His greatest work.

"Motives are weighed by the Lord."

Proverbs 16:2

Resist the temptation to make quick opinions about people you know – and don't know.

How boring the world would be if God created us all to look the same, act the same, and dress the same. The body of Christ is a beautiful, complex, and unique arrangement of believers from all walks of life, yet connected by one Spirit of God. This is regardless of our traditions, race, ethnicity, or any other differences.

“Now, you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it.

1 Corinthians 12:27

Respect the diversity within the body of Christ
throughout the world.

Being a hard-nosed judgmental person can hinder our ability to reach other people in Christ. In the end, it won't matter if you win or lose an argument or if you were right or wrong about another person. Yet, it will matter if your words, actions and attitude leave a presence of peace or of pain.

Judge not, but show love and respect to every human being with whom you interact and about whom you speak.
